Dana,

I received your voicemail this afternoon concerning the parties' dispute with respect to settlement agreements. As you know, on May 12, the Direct Action Plaintiffs proposed to Defendants as a compromise that they would agree (1) to inform Defendants of the fact of settlement and if there is a cooperation provision; and (2) to produce settlement agreements in their entirety after trial so the Court may properly calculate set-off. You responded on May 14, and you demanded that the DAPs produce entire settlement agreements - minus bank account information and routing instructions - "posthaste." The DAPs read your letter as a rejection of our offer and thus believe we are at impasse. Please let me know if we are mistaken; we remain willing to discuss a reasonable solution.

Regards, Anne
